

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Traverse City Virtual Tours, MI – March, 4 2008 - BlueLavaMedia, a certified Traverse City virtual tour provider, proudly announces full Supra Key / Lockbox certification for the Northern Michigan area. Their Supra Key certification will enable BlueLavaMedia's current and future clients the flexibility to simply order a virtual tour and know that a qualified, responsible and Supra Key certified company will be arriving on location to capture professional images and complete their virtual tour.

BlueLaVaMedia not only has the regions only professionally staffed and fully insured virtual tour photographer, but now has full certification to move in and out of homes freely. Without the need for agents to be present this certification is especially beneficial to real estate agents with high vacant home inventories.

Jason LaVanture owner of BlueLaVaMedia said, "We know that many states don't allow for lockbox training and certification so we are especially happy to be able to take the extra steps here for the local real estate agents of Northern Michigan. People take comfort in knowing that they are not only utilizing the best available professional service, but that they are also utilizing a company with the credentials to back it up. That really does make a difference."
